Elijah Claude

Year 5: May of 2018 to December of 2019 (ongoing).

In 5 Years I will have created prototypes of my inventions and have the fruitions of a new industry budding as a small business.

Have patents on multiple designs

Begin pitching ideas to financial backers/ kickstarter.com

Begin building different designs

Year 4: September of 2017 to May of 2018 (ongoing).

Attain materials to build products.

Have trustworthy partners that will help me design, build, and develop my inventions.

Acquire a R&D lab

Create clean, feasible alternate energy sources (at least 2)

Use software that allows me to design and test ideas (at least 2)

Have a network of influential (CIOs/CEOs/Politicians/QA Experts/Engineers/Etc) people that I can call on in the next five years.

Have a reliable IT career in the Product Development field.

Year 3: September 2015 to May of 2017 (ongoing).

Gain useful and valuable certificates (at least 5)

Speak in TEDx Talks, seminars, and Tech Fairs

Spread my brand through Social Networks

Constantly grow relationships with people

Learn how to program complex designing software

Do at least 5 big presentations

Help others in their careers as well

Become a Toastmaster

Email a different person every morning

Year 2: February to September of 2015 (ongoing).

Minor in Business or Philosophy

Learn specific programming

Go to Embry-Riddle, Georgia Tech, Tuskegee, Caltech, or MIT for Aeronautical or Mechanical Engineering.

Learn C, C+, C#, Java, Python,…

Create a deal to work for a company as they help me pay through school for higher learning.

Create programs or things they will use in the future

Attain A+ and Network+ certificates

Do great on Internship in Quality Assurance or Project Management

Do three people's jobs

Do 3 Info Interviews

Learn HTML, CSS, and other languages on w3schools.com

Exceed in L&D to receive an internship that can benefit me the most.

Go to Diamond meetings & talk to Support team

Get all As in my classes

Ask teachers for clarification

Review my notes every night

Do a study group at least twice a week

Year 1: Now to January or February of 2015.

Elijah Claude
Career Map & Outline

I. Year 1 (Present to February 2015)
   a. Year Up Program
      i. Exceed during L&D:
         1. Taking and reviewing notes every day
         2. Do quality work to receive high grades
         3. Build rapport with instructors
         4. Network with colleagues and staff (connect with 10 staff members)
         5. Talk to those on support team at least once a month
         6. Make three interviews a month with different staff members
         7. Attain A+ Certificate
         8. Create a functional website
      ii. Exceed during Internship:
         1. Get an internship at GE or a similar company
         2. Learn the norms during the first three weeks
         3. Network with 2 new people per week
         4. Attain Network+ Certificate
         5. Ask for more work once I (promptly) finish what I was given
         6. Ask engaging questions
         7. Create improvements to the current system of operations

II. Year 2 (February to September 2015 +)
   a. College (get my/a job that will pay me to go to college)
      i. Mechanical or Aeronautical Engineering:
         1. Minor in Business, Philosophy, Physics, Materials Science, etc
         2. Grow and strengthen my network by emailing different people every morning
         3. Become a Toastmaster by doing the speeches
         4. Possibly travel abroad
      ii. Gain and cultivate IT skills:
         1. Learn various coding languages
         2. Learn how to use or create software that allows me to design products
         3. Advertise IT skills amongst friends and family

III. Year 3 (September 2015 to May 2017)
   a. Networking
      i. Grow social network:
         1. Have a professional Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and blog.
      ii. Strengthen old and new relationships by keeping each other updated iii. Help at least five others in their career and 15 in college iv. Create or join clubs such as coding, inventors', entrepreneurs', etc
      v. Get to know people of power:

1. CEO/CIOs
2. Engineering specialists
3. Marketers and Advertisers
4. Politicians and Lawyers

b. Cultivate Skills
   i. Speak in large scale presentations:
      1. 2 TED talks
      2. 5 Seminars
      3. 4 Conventions
   ii. Create and maintain a YouTube channel:
      1. Weekly vlogs
      2. Featured on my website
   iii. Programming:
      1. Learn advanced coding languages
      2. Make an app
      3. Gain other certificates such as Security, PHP, Mobile, Cloud, etc

IV. Year 4 (September 2017 to May 2018)

a. Job/career
   i. Ensure stability with a high paying IT career
b. Inventing
   i. Create a viable alternate energy source:
      1. Testing, Funding, and Patenting
   ii. Have 2 or 3 partners (possibly a team) I can really trust:
      1. Handles designing and proofing
      2. Handles testing and safety
      3. Handles marketing and funding 4. Handles innovating and growth
   iii. Research and Development:
      1. Get a lab space (preferably hidden or private)
      2. Get top of the line security

V. Year 5 (May 2018 to December 2019)

a. Patenting
   i. Ensure I hold the patents and copyrights for all ideas:
      1. Patent pending process
      2. Military?
      3. Funding for patent process
      4. Copyrights, Trademarks, and other legal ownership
b. Funding
   i. Get money to be able to mass produce and build on a large scale:
      1. Military?

2. Kickstarter.com or any good invention based website
3. Have investors, stock, preorders, and donations
4. Partner with potential competitors in the market

c. Implementation
   i. Prepare for ramifications of disruptive technology:
      1. Strong growth plan
      2. Clear management plan
      3. Stable financial plan
      4. Working prototypes
      5. Enough materials to expand
      6. On track to pay overheads; small loans

VI. Global Takeover.